

I just wanted to say that since I already receive lots of RFI (Radio Frequency Interference) from power lines, etc. on my shortwave radios, I think it's a bad idea to approve PLC without first putting in assurances that the Ham Radio spectrum will not be interfered. Thanks! Steve